Dear Professors,

As Director of the London Academy of Diplomacy I would like to congratulate the People's Friendship University of Russia on reaching its fifty-fifth anniversary.

As a university also serving both national and foreign students, we are proud of our friendship with Russia and with your university.

I wish you many years of success in developing the cause of knowledge and development of your national and international student community.

With all good wishes,

Professor Joseph Mifsud PhD
Director
London Academy of Diplomacy
